Widowed.ca

An Online Resource for Widows, Widowers and their Loved Ones

Widowed.ca is a free online resource for widows, widowers and their loved ones, providing an easy way to locate a wide variety of information and services needed during the transition following the death of a spouse, parent or loved one. Helpful links for the following services and organizations are brought together on one site to provide assistance during a difficult transition.

- Applying for government benefit for widows/widowers
- Seeking grief support services to deal with death
- Locating professional services such as getting legal advice from a family lawyer or questions about wills and estates
- Finding information on taxes from a tax accounting expert
- Understanding financial and legal terms
- Funeral planning
- Finding new residential arrangements for seniors or,
- Working out your finances with a financial planner

Founded and developed by Senior Financial Advisors - Janet Baccarani and Jennifer Black of Dedicated Financial Solutions, Widowed.ca focuses on providing resources, helpful tips and links to trusted, widowed.ca approved professional services related to the passing of a spouse, parent or friend.

Facilitators Learning Circle

We are inviting all Facilitators to join us for a monthly Facilitator Learning Circle.

This is a chance to re-connect with other facilitators and have discussions and on-going learning. The meetings will be the 1st Tuesday of the month from 7-9pm and sessions will be held alternately at the BFO office and The Dorothy Ley Hospice starting in February respectively.

Please contact the BFO office to register at 905-848-4337.

Calling All Facilitators!
